ESCON 2019 supplementary information

This completed form should be added in the "Supplementary data"
(at the end of the submission process)

The European Social Cognition Network is a training network for Ph. D. students in Social Cognition. The network's mission is to train and guide Ph. D. students. As such, we highly encourage Ph. D. students to submit at any stage of their project (from the early stage of a project where exploratory work is conducted, to the final stage of a project, where confirmatory work is conducted).
